My Foreign Language Teacher

One of my favourite subjects at school is English. My teacher Lyubov Yaroslavovna has played a big role in my studying of this foreign language. Before she became our English teacher, I had not been more interested in English than in any other subject. I had no difficulty in writing in English and reading texts, but I did it without much enthusiasm. The teacher helped me to reach my potential and catalyzed in me the burning desire to know the language.

Lyubov Yaroslavovna has an excellent knowledge of English. She constantly improves her level, never stops developing and learning new methods of teaching. She is not just a native speaker, but also able to teach the language to others.

The teacher prepares thoroughly for each lesson to make it interesting. We don't just learn English from a textbook. She is creative in the way she conducts the lessons: Lyubov Yaroslavovna shows us interesting presentations on the topics of the lesson and, for better learning, she also displays English films to broaden our vocabulary.

Our English teacher is highly empathic, sympathetic and always tries to cope with students' problems. She identifies the true purpose of it and understands that pupils learn the language in order to tackle a problem in their lives, using English as a tool. She has been able to explain to her students how indispensable it is to know English in the modern world.

If a student has any difficulties with the subject, she will be willing to help, explain the educational material once again. If the pupil still does not understand, she will begin to find an individual approach to the pupil and explains the topic in alternative ways. My English teacher understands that people are different and learn in different ways, so she is calm and patient.

The teacher looks elegant and beautiful. She carries the culture of England with her appearance.

Lyubov Yaroslavovna has all the makings of a good teacher and a loving attitude towards her students. I enjoy studying with a teacher who loves the subject and enthusiastically imparts her knowledge to students. Every day she helps me to study the language and to get to know the traditions of England. I believe teaching is not easy and it is a constant stream of decisions.
